COOKING UP A CELEBRATION

2011-2012 CAMPAIGN PLEDGE CARD

The theme for the 2011-2012 Share Campaign is Cooking up a Celebration. March 12, 2012 marks the 100th year anniversary of Girl Scouts. Let's make sure that every girl everywhere is able to participate in Girl Scouts and the celebration by supporting the SHARE campaign.

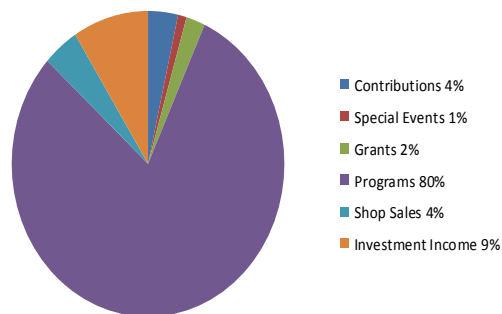

What is SHARE? Support Her Activities Resources and Experiences – the Annual Family Giving Campaign of the Girl Scout Council of the Florida Panhandle that raises money to cover a portion of the actual expense associated with one year of Girl Scout programs.

SHARE supports... Financial Assistance for girls • Training for all registered leaders • Programs of GSCFP that occur during the registration year • Communications (Website, 800 number, Publications) • Three (3) Camp Properties and three (3) Service Center facilities • Recruitment and retention materials and resources to support our Troop Programs

Did you know?

- The entire $12 annual registration fee goes to GSUSA in New York
- The girls' dues remain local in her Troop to support Troop programs
- Last year, only 1% of GSCFP families participated in SHARE
- It costs GSCFP $350 per girl to provide Girl Scouting for one year.
- United Way and other grant funding to GSCFP has been cut significantly over the past five years.
